Defense Attorney:	Victor M. Perez Retained	Telephone: (559) 625-2626
Other Court Action:	None

Mr. Huber has made regular monthly payments toward his financial obligations since commencing supervision. According to the United States District Court Clerk's Office, he has paid his special assessment of $100 in full. Additionally, he has made payments of $1,800 toward his fine, and is current on payments. Based upon his current earnings and expenses, he is able to pay $250 per month toward his fine obligation. It is estimated by the end of supervision, his fine balance will be $7,450.

United States Probation Officer Plan/Justification: Mr. Huber has been noticed and has acknowledged that upon completion of his supervision, the order for fine will become a civil obligation payable through the United States District Court Clerk's Office, and collected by the United States Financial Litigation Unit. Mr. Huber agrees to continue making minimum payments of $250 per month until the Court's order is satisfied. Mr. Huber has remained in compliance with the remaining conditions of his supervision. With these facts in mind, it is recommended that Mr. Huber's term of Supervised Release be allowed to terminate as scheduled on October 24, 2005, without further action of the Court.
